

Board of Director, Inuvialuit Development Corporation

The Inuvialuit Regional Corporation is seeking applications from Inuvialuit beneficiaries to sit as a Director on the Inuvialuit Development Corporation (IDC) Board.

Directors will participate in the IDC Board meetings on a quarterly basis, with attendance at additional meetings required occasionally. As a Director you carry out the IDC mandate and pursue the strategic initiatives. Directors must understand the fundamentals of business and possess analytical skills and judgement that will allow the Board to be fully engaged in the essential functions of IDC. This includes reports on the operations of IDC and its subsidiaries including Weldco-Beales Manufacturing., IDC Properties, IDC Construction, Stantons and Aklak Air Ltd., also interest in Canadian North and Delta North Alliance.

As a Board of Director for the Inuvialuit Development Corporation carrying out its mandate, the Director should have a good understanding of the Inuvialuit Final Agreement and awareness of the economic & social conditions in the Inuvialuit Settlement Region, territorially and nationally. The Director will uphold the duties of confidentiality, diligence and acting in the best interests of the IDC.

The IDC Board has seven (7) Members, including a Chair and Vice-Chair. The entire Board is appointed by the IRC Board of Directors. The Board of Directors holds this appointment at the pleasure of the IRC Board for a term of three (3) years. The role of the IDC Board member is outlined in the IDC Bylaws.
