IRC Summer Literacy Day Camp Discipline and Behavior Management Contract

At IRC's Summer Literacy Camp, we strive to provide a safe and respectful environment for all children and staff. It is our duty to make sure that camp is a positive and safe experience for all. At this time, we ask for your help to discuss the following rules with your child(ren), so they understand what is expected of them.

1. IRC takes a "zero-tolerance" approach. This means that any physical and/or verbal abuse of participants or staff could result in the participant being suspended from camp for up to a week. Upon return to camp, if this behavior occurs again, it may be asked that the child be removed for the rest of the summer.
2. There are 5 non-negotiable rules at IRC's Summer Literacy Camp:
 - 1) Keep your hands and feet to yourself
 - 2) Use appropriate language, including your manners
 - 3) Keep toys, electronics, and money at home (we do not want them to be lost or stolen)
 - 4) Camp is a high-five only zone (please respect the space of others)
 - 5) Treat others and yourself with respect

When managing a child's behavior, Summer Day Camp staff try to:

- Praise and encourage behaviors that facilitate positive outcomes
- Present children with clear expectations
- Use redirection to replace undesirable behavior with a more desirable one

If an incident related to your child(ren)'s behavior does occur, staff will:

- Give the child a warning about the behavior.
- If behavior continues, appropriate consequences will follow (i.e. not talking, taking a quiet break, etc.).
- If the behavior continues, the child(ren) will be asked to speak to the Camp Coordinator to try and resolve the issue. Parent(s)/guardian(s) may be notified (depending on the seriousness of the situation). The child(ren) will be allowed to return to their group at the discretion of the Camp Coordinator.
- If the behavior continues, the child(ren) will be asked to leave Summer Day Camp for the rest of the week.

Please sign to indicate that you have read the IRC Summer Literacy Camp Discipline and Behavior Management, have communicated it to your child/ward and are both aware of the actions that may be taken.
