Acknowledgments

The Inuvialuit Regional Corporation (IRC) would like to thank all Inuvialuit beneficiaries and organizations for contributing their time and knowledge to support the creation of this children's book. IRC is especially grateful to the elders and youth who participated in the translation of this book, for their transfer of knowledge and sharing of wisdom. We appreciate the informative feedback that was received throughout this project from the members of Children's Book Review Board, Community Corporations, and Inuvialuit Cultural Resource Centre, among others. We would also like to acknowledge the Inuvialuit Communications Society for facilitating the audiobook recordings for this project and thank the speakers who shared their voices and their language. Finally, a special thank you to IRC's Innovation, Inuvialuit Science and Climate Change Division for leading the development of this storybook and managing its publication. IRC hopes that this book will help to preserve and revitalize our language for generations to come.
